Presentments Against Jersey City Water Commissioners.

Submitted for the Mayor's Approval by the Inquiry Committee.

The special committee Jersey City appointed to investigate the doings of the Jersey City government for the last year has completed its duty, and this morning submitted to Mayor Wanser a series of charges of corruption and malfeasance in office against the members of the Board of Water Commissioners, consisting of President John P. Madden, Charles J. Somers, Edward A. Dugan, Wm. H. Cook and Stephen P. Fox.

The specifications of the charges formulated against the board are five in number, as follows:

1. Violation of the "Lewis Act" in expending the city money in a sum of over $500 without first advertising for bids as the law requires.
2. Reckless extravagance in expenditure of the public money in the erection of public buildings Nos. 24 and 25.
3. Violation of law in awarding a contract to the Jersey City Gas Improvement Company for the lighting of the streets for a period of five years, the law prescribing one year to be the limit for such contracts.
4. Having men at work on the public streets for the purpose of procuring material for the city, and there being no provision made for their payment.
5. Having on the city pay rolls, and issuing monthly pay warrants to a number of persons who were not in the positions they were supposed to fill.

These charges, it is stated by Mayor Wanser, will be forwarded by him to Gov. Abbott, and the removal of the Commissioners from office asked for.

The committee also will represent the people of Jersey City in prosecution of the charges against the board. The committee is composed of John P. Madden, Charles J. Somers, Edward A. Dugan, Wm. H. Cook and Stephen P. Fox.

COUNTING THE CHINAMEN.

They Decline to Answer the Internal Revenue Collector's Queries.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Charles H. Wheeler, of Gen. Michael Kerwin's staff, returned to his office at noon to-day with the questions preliminary to the registration with which he had been paying the Chinese population of Mott, Pell and Boyer streets, to which the invariable reply was a blank stare and a quick whiff at the plac.

Even my old friend, Yung Sing, at 6 Mott street, gave me no more encouraging answer than when I asked him to know if any of his friends were in the business of selling opium. "Yes," he said, "my pretty baby, he come seven month ago."

It is utterly impossible to distinguish between the Chinamen and go over the list without getting a headache.

But we are not getting any time before us and are bound to get a sufficient census of the Chinamen in the city, and we are bound to get a sufficient census of the Chinamen in the city, and we are bound to get a sufficient census of the Chinamen in the city.

As a by-product of the census, it is hoped that the Chinamen will be able to get a sufficient census of the Chinamen in the city, and we are bound to get a sufficient census of the Chinamen in the city.

Issue Between Owner Van Doren and Proprietor Kinsley.

The Latter Will Have to Deposit $167,000 Cash in the Suit.

Lawyer George M. Finney, Jr., of 66 Broadway, who is conducting the defense of Herbert M. Kinsley and others, proprietors of the Holland House, in the suit brought by Mrs. May J. Van Doren, was seen this morning in reference to the judgment of Judge Giegerich yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas.

By this Mr. Kinsley is required to deposit with the Union Trust Company the sum of $167,000 and bonds for $167,000, with two sureties, if he does not wish to have a receiver appointed.

Lawyer Finney said:

"The order has not yet been entered, and the money has not yet been deposited, but they will be within a day or two, as soon as the order is entered. While Mr. Kinsley considers the amount unnecessarily large, he is quite able to furnish it, and will undoubtedly do so. As to the bonds, we have not yet decided as to who the sureties will be, but a number of people amply able to do so have offered themselves as sureties."

"I must say that Judge Giegerich's decision is satisfactory to me, except as to the amount required to be deposited. That we consider excessive."

"Kinsley & Baumann did not take possession of the hotel until December, 1891. That is, the decision requires in effect that we should deposit $167,000 for the use and occupation of the building for nine months before the rent for the whole year is stipulated in the agreement of lease, is $143,000."

"As to the changes in the plan by which Mrs. Van Doren claims that she was compelled to a sum of $500,000 more on the building than she intended, I will say this: First, the original contract of Aug. 1, 1890, provided that changes should be made by mutual consent. Mr. Kinsley could not make any change without the consent of Mrs. Van Doren, and the greatest change that was made, namely, the addition of four hundred rooms on the fourth floor, necessitated the removal of the laundry to an outside building as suggested and strongly recommended by Architect George F. Baumann."

Mr. Kinsley purchased an "outside building" at 122 West Twenty-ninth street, at a cost to him of $100,000, which has been used for the laundry and servants' sleeping quarters ever since."

"The reason why no rent was paid was that, being deprived of the two most valuable portions of the building, the rent could not be determined by mutual agreement, or, failing that, by arbitration. Mrs. Van Doren sought to have the rent fixed by a jury, and the matter has gotten into the courts."

"After Sept. 1 there is no quarrel at all, and as by the decision Mrs. Van Doren is to receive $100,000 more, she will be able to pay the rent for the balance of the year."

Mrs. Dougherty Demands Her Husband's Help at Last.

Three Years of Married Life When She Supported Himself.

Samuel T. Dougherty, a member of the Oil Exchange, residing at 308 St. Nicholas avenue, was a prisoner in the Harlem Police Court this morning, charged by his wife with not having supported her from the day of their marriage, three years ago.

Mrs. Dougherty is a handsome woman. She has not lived with her husband since they were married.

It was said that they had been married a short time when a son was born, which lived only a few months.

Before she was married Mrs. Dougherty sang in the choir of the Temple and other synagogues. She has been supporting herself recently, she is determined to compel her husband to support her.

She visited Justice Weide, at the Harlem Police Court, and secured a warrant for her husband's arrest.

In court this morning he furnished bonds to pay $5 a week towards his wife's support.

O'CONNOR IN AN ASYLUM.

The Eccentric Actor Looked Up at His Family's Request.

James Owen O'Connor is now an inmate of the Insane Asylum at Morris Plains, N. J., having been sent there by County Physician Converse, of Jersey City, at the request of O'Connor's wife and family.

O'Connor has not appeared on the stage since last winter, when he had an engagement at a Jersey City variety theatre. He was noted off the stage by the crowd and forced to give up his engagement.

Since then his mind has been failing. The tragedian wandered away from his home about ten days ago, and he was found by the police in a vacant lot on Jersey City Heights.

His mind was evidently wandering, and when arrested in court he was very violent. An examination showed that he was undoubtedly suffering from acute mania and that he should be placed in confinement.

O'Connor made his first appearance in New York at the Casino, where he was very popular. He was a great favorite with the audience, and his performance was a great success.
